South Park's resident angel PAIGE COLLINS makes sure 'Everyone Eats Today'

One of ECOSS' "roommates" at the South Park Neighborhood Center, the South Park Providence Regina House, is a finalist for the "Brotherton Community Champions: Driving for Excellence Award".

Every week Providence Regina House provides essential services to hundreds of families in and around the South Park neighborhood. Please follow the link below and watch the video and learn of the important work Paige Collins carries out in the South Park community that ECOSS has the privilege of observing every day. With the winning number of votes, the South Park Providence Regina House Food and Clothing Bank will be awarded with a $5,000 award. Watch the video and vote for Paige today!

ECOSS is hiring!

ECOSS is seeking an organized and inspired Associate Director to manage and support daily operations and to be a strategic thought partner with the Executive Director during a time of significant organizational growth and development. Accepting applications until May 10, 2010.

We also have summer internship opportunities available for those interested in learning more about our Green Business program and to help augment our Development Department.

Please forward these opportunities to friends and colleagues! You can review job and intern descriptions here.
